DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION.

THE CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT.

The course embraced in this Department, covering four years, is substantially like that of the best Institutions of our country. and it will be rigidly adhered to.

We shall use every means to persuade students to enter upon this course, believing the study of the Ancient Languages to be an absolute necessity for a complete education.

To those who design entering the Ministry, instruction will be given in Hebrew, which will probably be taken as an equivalent for some branch of the Higher Mathematics.

THE SCIENTIFIC DEPARTMENT,

Is intended for those who do not take the Ancient Languages.—The course of study will be laid down by the Board of Trustees hereafter. Students may recite with any class they choose in any of the studies persued, provided they are competent to enter the class. An elective course may thus be taken.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT.

This Department is intended for those who wish to become thoroughly qualified teachers.

Special attention will be given to this class of students. The course of study prescribed, is that laid down by the Board of Normal Regents, covering three years. Students completing this course, and passing a satisfactory examination, will be entitled to a Certificate.

THE LAW AND BIBLICAL DEPARTMENTS.

Will be put into effective operation as soon as possible. The Law Department has already over 1100 Vols. in its Library.

DEGREES.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts, will be conferred upon the student who shall have completed the full Classical course and passed satisfactorily the required examinations.

A successful prosecution of the same pursuits, for three years will entitle him to the degree of Master of Arts.

Ladies completing the above courses will receive corresponding degrees.

The degree of Bachelor of Philosophy will be conferred upon the student who shall have completed the Scientific course, and passed the required examination.

Three years successful prosecution of the same studies will entitle him to the degree of Master of Philosophy.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the Freshman Class must pass a satisfactory examination in the studies laid down in the Preparatory course or their equivalents.

Candidates for advanced standing are also examined in the studies, to which the Class they propose to enter, have attended.

Those desiring a partial course, may be admitted to any of the recications for which they are prepared.

Students coming from other Colleges must present a certificate of honorable dismission.

EXAMINATIONS.

At the close of each Term, a public examination of all the classes will be held, at which every member of each class is required to be present. At the close of each year, the classes will be examined in the studies of the year.

Students who are absent from the regular examinations, must pass an examination before the Faculty, before they can be allowed to proceed with their class.

BUILDING.

The Building is a noble stone structure, 47 by 57 feet, 2 stories high, and capable of accomodating 400 students, and is now fully completed.

LIBRARY.

The Library contains 1750 volumes, and 700 pamphlets, and donations are being constantly made.

CABINET.

The Cabinet already consists of several hundred Shells, Minerals, Maps, Charts, Pictures &c., and is constantly increasing,

RECITATIONS, ETC.

Each class attends three recitations or lectures daily. Exercises in composition and declamation are regularly required.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

LOCATION.

Galesville is situated in a healthy and romantic region, 6 miles from Trempealeau the landing point on the Mississippi River, 21 miles from LaCrosse and 13 from Winona.

LITERARY SOCIETY.

There is one Literary Society, the Ciceronean, which is a valuable aid to the intellectual training of the students.

MERIT ROLL.

A record is kept of the daily attendence, conduct and recitation of each student.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.

Religious exercises are conducted at the University each morning at nine o'clock, at which all the Students are present.

CHARTER

GALESVILLE UNIVERSITY.

CHAP. 296.

An Act to incorporate the Galesville University.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in the Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That Wiram Knowlton, Francis M. Rublee, Samuel T. Smith, George Gale William M. Young, William J. Gibson, Benjamin Allen, George Batchelder, Benjamin F. Heuston, Benjamin B. Healy, Charles Ritter, James Reed and Isaac Noyes, their associates, and successors, be, and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic, for educational purposes, in perpetual succession, with the name and title of "The Board of Trustees of Galesville University," with full power to sue, and be sued; plead, and be impleaded; to acquire, hold and convey property, real and personal; to have and use a common seal, to alter and renew the same at pleasure, and to adopt such by-laws, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States or of the State of Wisconsin, as they may deem necessary for the government of the university.

SEC. 2. The said university shall be located on the south-west quarter of the north-west quarter of section thirty-two, in township nineteen, north of range eight west, in the county of Trempealeau, and may be erected on a plan sufficiently extensive to afford instruction in literature, the sciences, and arts, in the theory and practice of elementary instruction, and in any of the liberal professions in such manner and at such times as the board of trustees may deem practicable and desirable.

SEC. 3. The board of trustees shall consist of not less than ten members, who shall have power to increase the number to fifteen, and to fill any vacancies that may occur by death, resignation or neglect of the duties of the office for more than one year. The members of the board shall be divided into two classes, one of which shall go out of office in one year, to be determined by lot at the organization of the board, and afterwards trustees shall be elected to serve two years. The first meeting of the board of trustees shall be held at such time and place as may be designated in a call signed by a majority of the corporate members, of which due notice shall be given, and afterwards they shall meet on their own adjournment, and in such manner as may be prescribed in the by-laws; and any five of them, duly assembled, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and any less number may adjourn from time to time.

SEC. 4. The board of trustees shall have power to devise and execute measures for the establishment and prosperity of the university; to prescribe the course of study in the several departments; to appoint an executive committee, consisting of the president, secretary, treasurer and three directors for the transaction of all ordinary business under the direction of the by-laws and subject to the approval of the board; to elect and inaugurate a board of instruction, consisting of a presiding officer, who shall be a member of the board of trustees ex officio, and the requisite number of professors and tutors; and also to confer such degrees and to grant such diplomas as are conferred and granted by other universities.

SEC. 5. All funds and property received by the board of trustees by gift, or otherwise, shall be faithfully applied according to the best of their judgement for the benefit of the university, in purchasing grounds, erecting buildings, procuring library and apparatus, creating endowments for the support of professors and paying the salaries of agents, officers and teachers of the university: Provided, That any donations or bequeaths made for particular purposes in accordance with the design of the corporation, shall be applied according to the wishes of the donors.

SEC. 6. The library, apparatus, cabinet and lands of the university, not exceeding forty acres, shall be exempt from taxation: Provided, That lands, exempt from taxation by the provisions of this act, shall not be used for any other than university purposes.

SEC. 7. No political or religious opinions shall be required as qualifications for membership in the university, and no student shall be required to attend worship with any particular religious denomination.

Approved, April 1, 1854.

CHAP. 241.

AN ACT exempting certain university lands from taxation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in the Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All lands or real estate, not exceeding five thousand acres in amount, which have been, or hereafter may be, conveyed to the board of trustees of the Galesville University, for educational purposes, and which are or shall be held, or appropriated, solely for the purpose of sustaining the said university, shall be exempt from taxation for the term of five years from the passage of this act: Provided, that no such land or real estate shall continue to be exempt from taxation after the said board of trustees shall cease to hold the same for educational purposes, nor after the same shall be leased, or otherwise used with a view to profit.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 30, 1860.

CHAP. 11.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "an act to incorporate the Galesville University."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in the Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Northwest Wisconsin annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, is hereby authorized and empowered to annually appoint four visitors, who shall be ex officio members of the board of trustees of the Galesville University, and shall severally hold their offices for the term of two years, and until the election or appointment of their successors: provided, that the members of the said board of trustees shall not exceed the number of fifteen at any one time.

SEC. 2. All libraries, apparatus, cabinets and furniture belonging to said university, shall not be liable to attachment, execution or sale or any final process issued from any court in this state.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 11, 1862.

BY-LAWS.

The Board of Trustees of the Galesville University, do hereby ordain and adopt the following by-laws for the government of the University :

SECTION 1. The fiscal and business year of the Board of Trustees of the Galesville University shall commence on the second Thursday of July of each year, and close on the day preceeding the second Thursday of July.

SEC. 2. The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Galesville University, shall be held on the second Thursday of July of each year. The said annual meeting shall be held either at the University building, or at the Court House in the village of Galesville, commencing at 2 o'clock in the afternoon ; but in case the annual meeting in any year shall not, for any cause, be held on said day, some other time shall be appointed by resolution of the Board of Trustees, at which a special meeting of the trustees shall be held for the purposes aforesaid.

SEC. 3. All elections held by the Board of Trustees, shall be under the direction of the Board of Trustees, who shall be inspectors thereof, and all trustees may vote at any election. or on any business matters of the company, in person . or by proxy to any other trustee who may be present at any meeting of the board, duly authorized in writing.

SEC. 4. All meetings of the Board of Trustees, other than the annual meeting shall, be held at the University building, at such time as shall be designated by the President, executive committee, or five trustees of the board.

SEC. 5. The officers of the board, and of the President, Secretary and Treasurer with the books and papers thereto belonging, shall be kept in the village of Galesville, or town of Gale in Trempealeau County, Wisconsin.

SEC. 6. The Board of Trustees of the Galesville University, shall consist of fifteen persons ; and the officers of the said board shall consist of a President, Secretary, Treasurer and three Directors, who shall together compose the executive committee, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business as an executive committee.

SEC. 7. The President of the board shall be a general agent, and have a general supervision and direction subject to the order of the board of trustees, of the business and affairs of the said board ; and shall preside at all meetings of the board and executive committee, when present. In the absence of the President, a president pro tem. may be appointed by the trustees or executive committee, who shall discharge the duties of President, at any such meeting of the board or executive committee. It shall further be the duty of the president, unless otherwise specially ordered, to sign all certificates, orders on the treasurer for payments by the board, deeds mortgages, contracts, writings obligatory, and papers of whatever kind to which the board of trustees is a party, and such rules and regulations as may be established by the by-laws, or from time to time adopted by resolution or otherwise of the board of trustees.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of the secretary to attend the meetings of the board of trustees and of the executive committee, to keep a fair and accurate record of all their proceedings, make out an annual statement and balance sheet up to and including the day preceeding the second Thursday of July of each year, showing the financial condition of the board of trustees at such periods ; keep an accurate account with each contractor and all persons having dealings with the board of trustees, and an account of the whole property of the board in what it consists, where situated and in whose hands entrusted, and generally to keep a full account of the whole amount of the receipts and revenues of the board of trustees of whatever kind and from whatever source, and of the whole amount of disbursements and expenditures of the board for whatever purposes ; and lay the same before the board at each annual meeting. It shall be the duty of the secretary to attest all certificates, orders on the treasurer, deeds, mortgages, contracts, writings obligatory and such other papers executed on behalf of the board. as may be directed by the board.

SEC. 9. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to take charge of and safely keep, collect and disburse, under the regulations of the board, all moneys, goods, chattles and evidences of debt of every kind belonging to the board of trustees coming into, or appropriately belonging to his department. He shall deliver to the secretary, monthly, an abstract of all receipts given by him on the preceeding month ; he shall take, keep and carefully preserve all vouchers in support of all disbursements which he may make by order of the board. He shall keep no account with individuals having business with the board ; all moneys received by him shall at once be passed to the credit of the board on his books, and the same account charged with all warrants drawn on him, when paid ; and shall also render an annual account and settlement at the end of each year of all receipts and disbursements by him made, during the preceeding year, and lay the same before the board of trustees at the annual meetings. He shall give a bond to the board of trustees, conditioned, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, with good and sufficient securities to be approved by the board, in such penal sum as the board may require ; and a new bond may be demanded by the board, with increased and additional security, at any time the board may see proper.

SEC. 10. The board of trustees shall have power at any meeting of the board, by a majority of the entire board, to remove any officer or agent of its own appointment, or that may have been appointed or employed by any officer of the board of trustees.

SEC. 11. The executive committee shall possess all the power and authority, when the board of trustees is not in session, that the board of trustees do, or can possess when in session by virtue of the Act of Incorporation, or by these By-Laws. They shall keep a record of their transactions which shall be read at the next meeting of the board of trustees and the board of trustees at such meeting shall have the same power to disapprove, recind and annul any act or transaction of the executive committee, as the board would have to disapprove, recind or annul any previous act or transaction of the board of trustees; and all the acts and transactions of the executive committee, not disapproved, recinded or annulled, shall be deemed, held and taken to be approved and confirmed by the board of trustees.

SEC. 12. All deeds, mortgages, leases and contracts conveying or relating to real estate, belonging to the board of trustees of the Galesville University, shall be signed by the president and attested by the secretary with the seal of said board of trustees, and when so executed under and by virtue of a resolution of the said board of trustees shall be effectual in law to pass all the title in the said real estate, according to the terms and conditions of said instrument, that the said board of trustees have power to pass and dispose of to any person or corporation whatever.

SEC. 13. All disbursements shall be made on warrants drawn upon the treasurer and signed by the president and attested by the secretary: and no such warrant shall be drawn without the order of the board of trustees, or of the executive committee.

SEC. 14 Any by-law may be suspended temporarily at any meeting of the board of trustees by a vote of two-thirds of all the members present; and any by-law or the whole code, may be amended or repealed at any regular meeting of the board by a vote of the majority of all the trustees.

DEPARTMENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY.

SEC. 15. The Galesville University is divided into the following departments, viz:

1st, The Primary and Normal Department.
2d, The Philosophical and Classical Department.
3d, The Agricultural and Mechanical Department.
4th, The Law Department.
5th, The Medical Department.
6th, The Biblical Department.

SEC. 16. The President of the board of trustees is hereby authorized and directed to prepare and cause to be opened, books for subscriptions, and receive donations for the different departments of the University, and any amount so donated to any one of the departments shall not be applied to any other department of the University, but professors and teachers in any one of the departments may be required by the board to instruct classes and deliver lectures in any or all other departments.

SEC. 17. The Biblical Department shall be under the advisory control of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and all donations received for that department, shall be received with that understanding; and all professors and teachers for that department shall be nominated either by the North Western Wisconsin Annual Conference, or by one of the bishops of said church who shall have presided over the said conference.

Sec. 18. Any one or more persons, who by donations, or the purchase of perpetual scholarships, or both shall pay to the board ten thousand dollars, may designate the said ten thousand dollars as an endowment of a professorship in any one of the departments of this University (subject to the acceptance of the board of trustees,) and such amount shall be invested and remain a perpetual fund, the interest, rents and profits of which only, shall be paid over to such professors as shall from time to time occupy the chair or professorship so designated.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Sec. 19. The president of the board is hereby authorized to issue and cause to be sold for the benefit of this University, five hundred perpetual scholarships at two hundred dollars each, and five hundred scholarships of twenty five years, at one hundred dollars each, each of the said scholarships shall be good for the tuition of one scholar at a time, in any one or more of the departments of the university after such department is in operation and during the continuance thereof. Any person purchasing a scholarship may designate to which department of the University such purchase money shall be applied, and the same shall be applied accordingly.

Sec. 20. All scholarships issued by this institution, pursuant to the aforesaid By-Law number nineteen, shall be assignable only upon the books of the board of trustees, and on the return of the original certificate, a new certificate may be issued to the assignee; each of said scholarships shall be good for the tuition of the owner thereof, or any of his or her children, but to no other persons, and on the decease of the owner thereof, the same shall go to his or her legal heirs, who shall become thereby the owner thereof, and the same shall not be treated as a part of the assetts of the estate in the hands of the executor or administrator, nor shall any scholarship be liable to attachment or execution, nor to sale upon any final process as property, but the same shall be saleable and controlable only by the owner thereof. All students attending the University under, or by virtue of scholarships shall be subject to the same rules and regulations and be liable to be expelled for the same misconduct as other students.

Sec. 21. The certificate of scholarships shall be as near as practicable to the following form, viz :

No.——— $ ———

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES
of the
GALESVILLE UNIVERSITY,

To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting :

KNOW YE THAT,

has paid to the Treasurer of the said board, the sum of two hundred (or one hundred) dollars in full for one perpetual scholarship, (or one scholarship for twenty five years,) in the said university, commencing on the day of 186 which said scholarship shall be good for the tuition of the owner thereof, or any of children for the term aforesaid, in the said University. This scholarship is as-signable only upon the books of this institution, and on the return of this certificate a new certificate will be issued to such assignee.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF ; the president and secretary of the board of trustees have signed their names, and caused the seal of the university to be hereto affixed.

L.S.

Done at Galesville. Wisconsin, this day of Anno Domini, 186

Attest, PRESIDENT.

SECRETARY.

Sec.22. It shall be the duty of the secretary to number each certificate of scholarship issued and keep a full record of the same, and each new certificate issued on an assignment shall receive the number of the original certificate.

Sec. 23. On the sale of all scholarships the president is authorized to receive in payment, real or personal property at cash value, also sell the same on credit with interest payable semi-annually to the treasurer of the board at Galesville, on receiving good mortgage or other good security for the payment of the same.

Sec. 24. The president of this board is further authorized to issue and sell five hundred personal scholarships for ten years each, for the sum of fifty dollars each, to be paid in the same manner as other scholarships.
